

Curriculum for Excellence

Successful Learners

- Using literacy, communication and numeracy skills.
- Using technology for learning.
- Thinking creatively and independently.
- Learning independently and as part of a group.
- Making reasoned evaluations.
- Linking and applying different kinds of learning in new situations.

Confident Individuals

- Relating to others and managing themselves.
- Pursuing a healthy and active lifestyle.
- Being self-aware.
- Developing and communicating their own beliefs and views of the world.
- Living as independently as they can.
- Assessing risk to make informed decisions.
- Achieving success in different areas of activity.

Responsible Citizens

- Developing knowledge and understanding of the world and Scotland's place in it.
- Understanding different beliefs and cultures.
- Making informed choices and decisions.
- Evaluating environmental, scientific and technological issues.
- Developing informed, ethical views of complex issues.

Effective Contributors

- Communicating in different ways in different settings.
- Working in partnership and teams.
- Taking the initiative and the lead.
- Applying critical thinking in new contexts.
- Creating and developing.
- Solving problems.